WALK-IN CLOSETS

What's the point of hiding your designer and specially curated clothes and accessories? A contemporary walk-in closet design has an open concept and creates an organized look that you would love to flaunt. Walk-in range taps into the current trend for wardrobes which double up as display cases, achieving a real sense of openness and lightness. The range of different finishes for inside panels and stunning features design allow the space to be adapted to accommodate specific functional requirements, including racks for trousers, belts and shoes, shelves and clothes rails with integrated lighting solutions.

LINENIN

Linen merges well with your clothes fit for Indian weather and aims to create a personal space that is both attractive and comfortable. Thus, shifting its role from purely one of storage to a source of beauty.
